

MICHELLE CLARK – SUBSITUTE BIO

Michelle Clark began her career in Jordan School District as a classroom teacher before becoming an elementary principal. She recently retired from Canyons School District and enjoys substituting because it helps her stay current in education. She is the co-founder of Mentoring Solutions, a company designed to help schools and districts mentor leadership teams and classroom teachers. She has a wide range of training and she is considered an expert in organization. Michelle is a graduate of Westminster College and the University of Utah. She has completed extensive work at Brigham Young University.